

SIGNBOARD POLICY AND AGREEMENT

As per the Owners Corporation Rules, approval from the owners corporation must be obtained before any signage can be erected on the property.

Approval is conditional upon signed acceptance of the following conditions:

- Only For Sale/Auction signboards can be approved. For Lease boards are not approved.
- Only one sign at a time can be on display.
- The sign can only be located in a position approved by the owners corporation.
- The size of the board, its placement and the period of time the board is erected must be determined in advance in consultation with the owners corporation. (Maximum size 1.8mx1.2m or 6'x4')
- The lot owner/agent accepts liability for any damage to the property caused by the sign.
- Boards that are placed without approval or outside the conditions of this policy will be removed by the owners corporation and the lot owner will be liable for all costs including labour, waste disposal fees and administration charges involved in removing the sign.
